

~~FRANCE~~ ~~BRITANNY~~

FRANCE - BRITANNY

1960

5/3

ROWNEY
SPIRAL BOUND SKETCH BOOK
SERIES B85
20 LEAVES OF JOYNSON DRAWING PAPER
Made in England by George Rowney & Co., Ltd.,
London, W.1.

Gaby

24. 8. 60.

W.

After hectic preparations lasting 4 days with Miss Joanna preparing set off at 3.30. having done Clevedon o.p. in morning, with a full load including Miss Joanna.

Raining. Wotton. Bibury. Tea at Whitney. Oxford. London, via 56 Tedworth Circus, Grosvenor Sq. & St. Thomas to park on embankment, Strand Corner House basement grill. "Chicken in Basket." 8.30pm. Chicken, Steak & White Wine. Alison had fish & chips. Micky said he could stay there eating forever! Colin collected Miss Joanna. Us to Oupington, where we found Bob in Paris & house in possession of a Dragon & her Son. - 'Universal Aunt.' Cold milk, so to bed.

25. 8. 60.

T.

Early rise. Promise of sunshine unfulfilled, lovely daisies. High wind. Off at 8.30 am. Unusually drive except for bypass at Maidstone. Further purchases at Dover. Highly organised drive out ferry. 'Lord Warden'. Rapid windy crossing, leaving 12 women - arriving 1.20 pm. Lunch on board - followed by orange juice in bar. Micky said he was seasick. Quite cold & dull. Equally rapid disembarkation at Boulogne. On the road by 2 pm. We liked Sames with its old church. & Montueuil with hill situation, ramparts & some lovely old wine. Uneventful drive until just before Forest - Montiers where the fan belt broke. Fortunately had a spare which a garage fixed quickly. ^{Shopped in} Abbeville. Rouen. Sun came out - lovely view down river. Road rose up onto hills on S. Bank of Seine. Glorious views of the river with ocean going ships sailing down it. Picnic evening meal on side road overlooking the ferry & ride through the forest. Sausages, bacon & local wine. Made up beds - put kids to sleep & drove on through dark to Honfleur. Very pleased with first view of harbor with floodlit church & old lieutenant's house. Considered hiring a pension but had camp.

so early & it was so good that we all piled into the van & slept - rather fitfully because of mosquitoes. till 7 am.

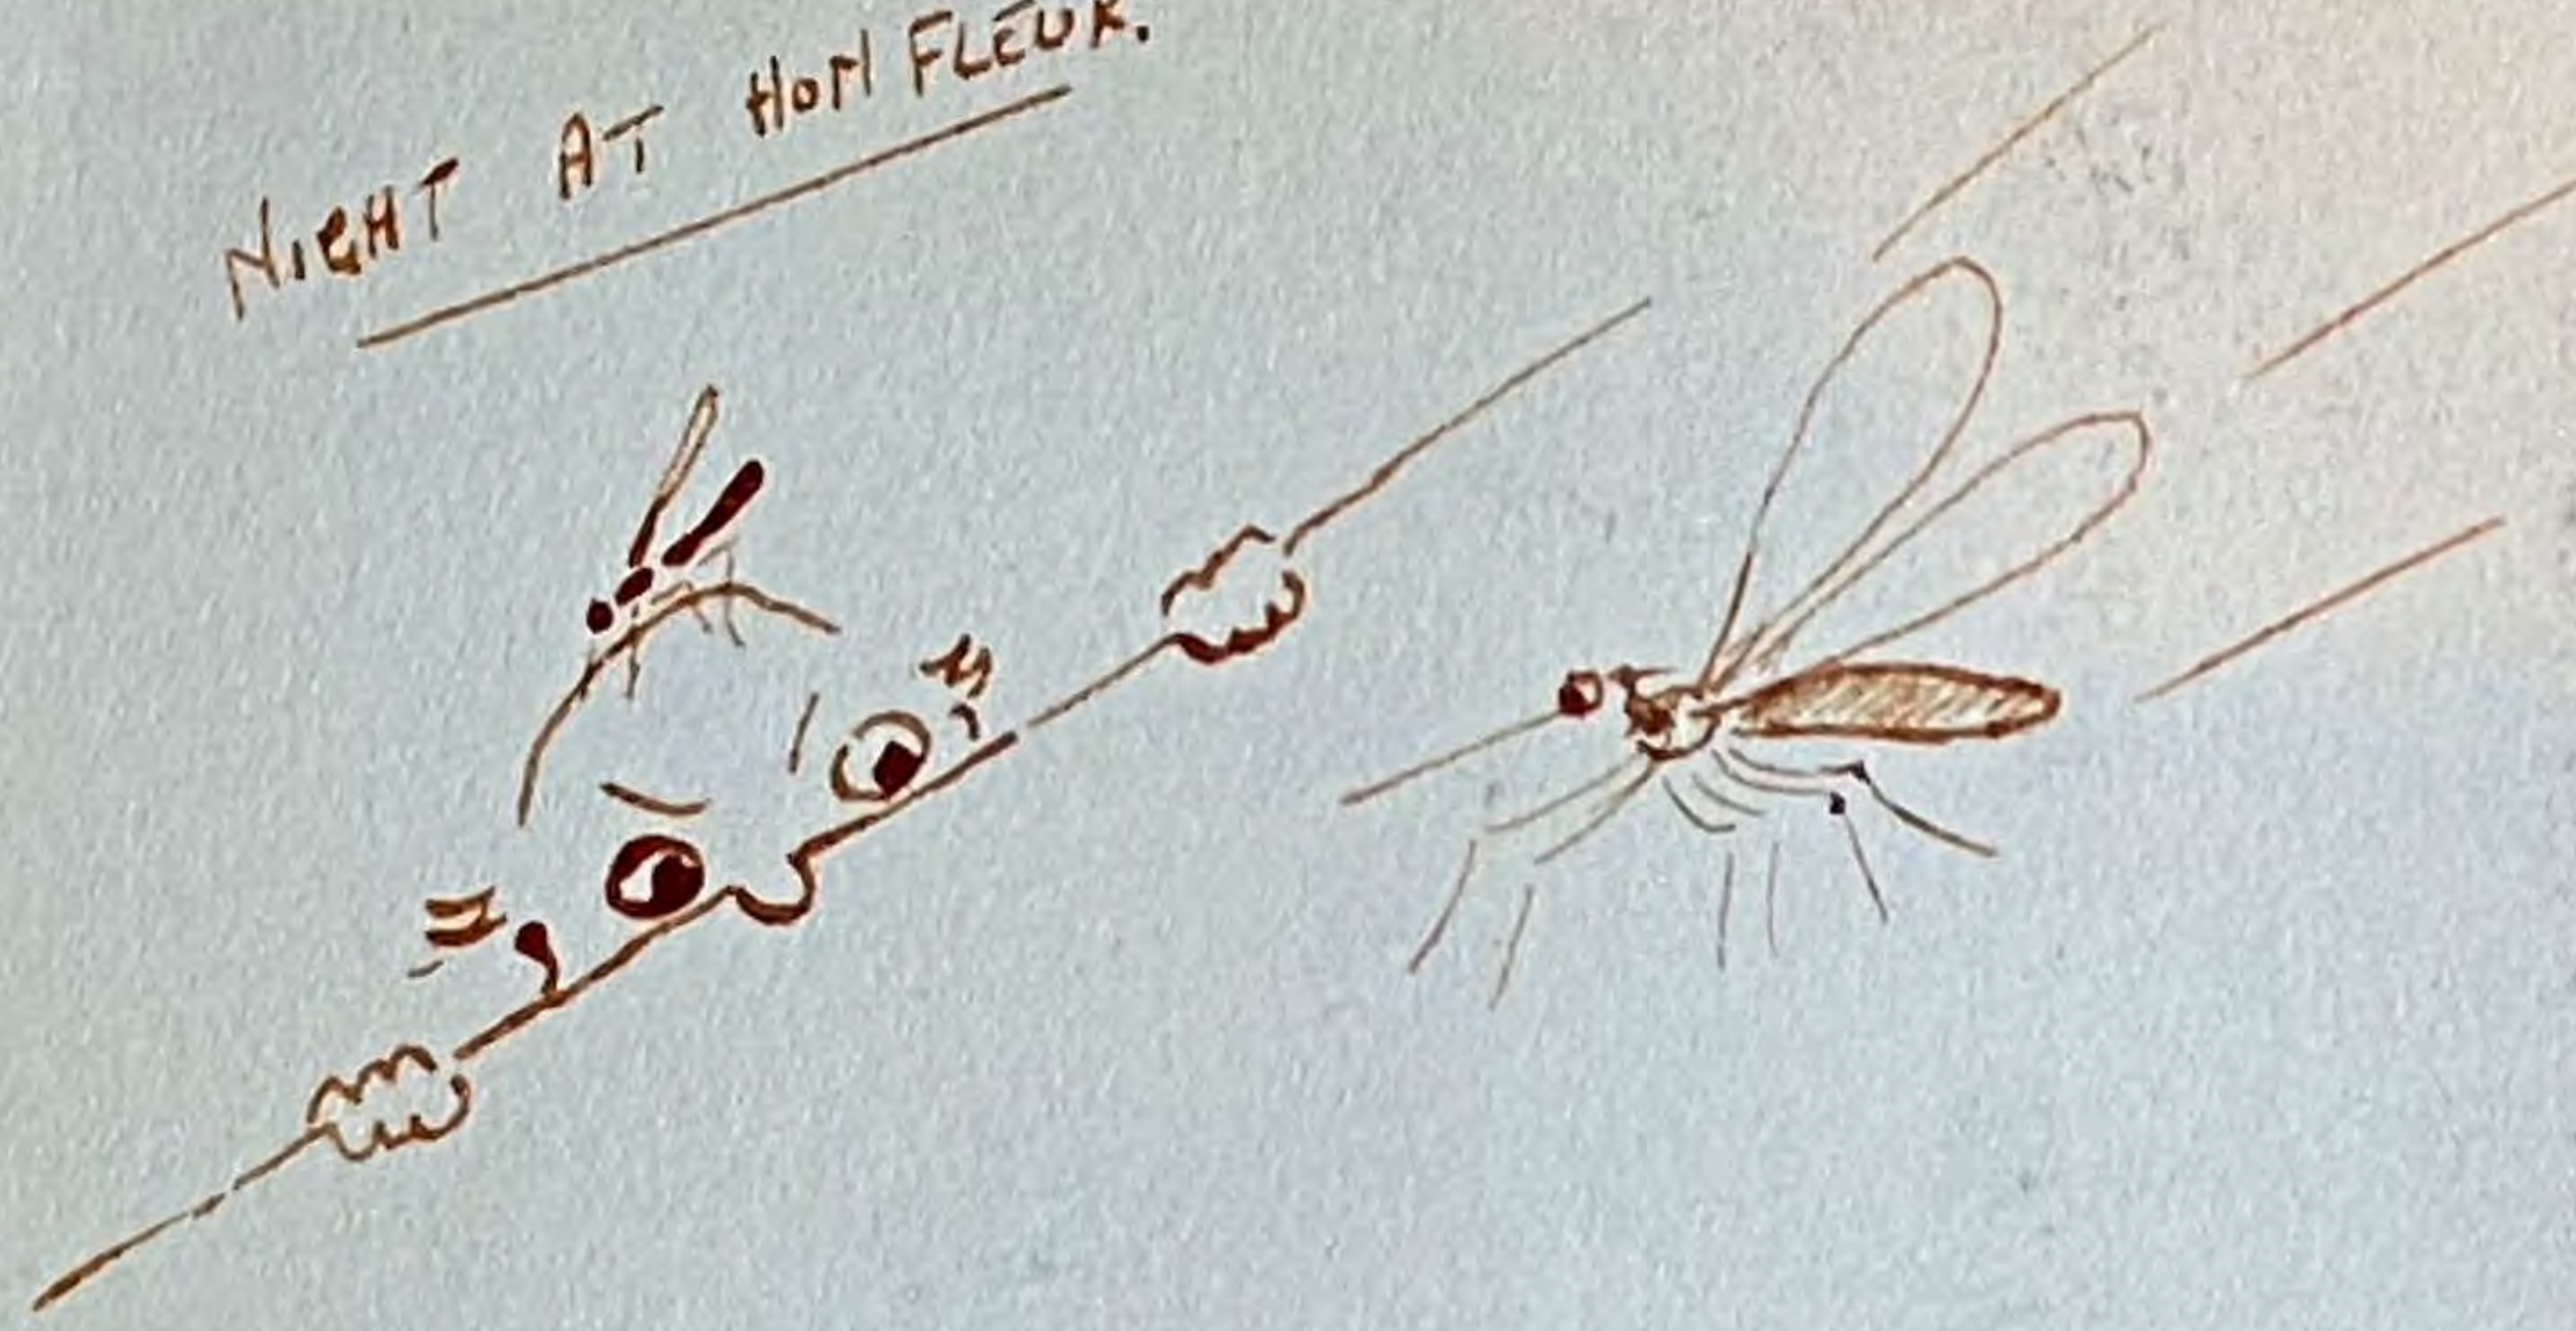

26. 8. 60 F.

Dawned hot sunny & glorious. Shower. Breakfast packed up. Badly bitten by mosquitoes in the night. Drove into Honfleur & liked it so much that decided to stay until after lunch. lovely old port **.

la lieutenance *. Clocher de St. Catherine *. Eglise St. Catherine *. made entirely of wood. and many beautiful old streets. Watched the fishing boats returning to the end of a yacht cruising race entering the old harbour. Kids to the playground. John painting. Jill exploring. Shopped. - lunch at Restaurant on the Quai. Hors d'oeuvres. Chicken Chips. Cheese & Fruit. Muscadet. for 6 fr. (new). Total meal £20 for the two of us. (13 n.f. to the £)

Visited Cote de Grace a hill overlooking Honfleur to shake down lunch. Calvary. pilgrimage church & marvellous view

NIGHT AT HOTEL FLEUR.

View over town & mouth of Seine over to le Havre. Sticky lollipops. donkey carts & souvenirs. Seaside drive through Normandy cider apple orchards & half timbered farmhouse country to Villerville - small & secluded beach. Trouville-Deauville.
like fashionable Blackpool. crowded, cockles, oysters.
amusements & Casino. Yachting. polo & poppies. Over a hill at Houlgate to Cabourg - beautiful flowers, casino.
& so to Merville-Franceville camp site. les Cloches.

On the sand dunes. poorly appointed but convenient for sea. kids bathed until called.
Picnic supper. after pitching tent.

S. 27. 8. 60. Clearing skies. breakfast & on the road via Pegasus bridge captured by 5th.
Parachute brigade 6. 6. 1944. D. Day. to Caen. - almost entirely newly rebuilt except for 2 abbeys des Femmes, & des Hommes. Fine examples of Norman architecture but rather extensively restored. & a bit disappointing. Weddings all over the place. Walk to Church of St. Nicholas. - shopping & more shopping on outskirts. then glorious drive through deserted hinterland of Normandy - wooded rolling hill sides. to Villers Bocage.
entirely destroyed & rebuilt, after which picnic lunch. pâté, saucisson, cheese etc. → Pontarcy in Vallée de l'Avire to copper beating town of Ville-dieu-les-Poêles. lovely old church (is with modern stained glass windows, & multitudes of shops selling beaten copper ware, worked here since. Also a bell foundry. Strawberry ice creams all round, at 30 francs. Avranches with a lovely view from the Jardin des Plantes, over the bay of Mont. S. Michel. Walked ^{monument to} Patton around then to Mt. S. Michel. Hinterland full of camp sites mostly good. Drive out to the mount. - spoilt by souvenir shops, cafes, with oysters, muscadet, bread at fr. 300, & a view over the bay. Aeroplane trips round the mount. Underneath it all a hint of past glory and awe at the engineering feat involved in building the abbey.

PICNIC NEAR VILLAGE ROCKABEE

Jill 'Alad Tim not the man who put the angel on the top. Across the sand to the chapel of St. Aubien - drive back to Camp at the Mont St. Michel, well equipped - showers etc. Tour de force meal by Jill.

Soup, Veal & Peas & Potatoes, Garlic, & Lemon. Cheese, Vin de Bordeaux. to bed, after swaddled for 2 countries. 2 coffees, at 650 fr. (New liqueur tax.)

Not the original postcard!

$ 28.8.60.

GLAD IM NOT THE CHAP WHO PUT THE ANGEL ON THE TOP.

Dull & rain squalls. Petrol last view of the Mont. S. Michel then through rather dull scenery to ~~St.~~ Dol. Sun coming out Cathedral. with 2 fine porches decorated in low relief.
wooden Christ & angel window. Cide, crepe (plain cold.)
in a small cafe. Walk onto ramparts of town with fine view over Mont Dol.

Rather uninteresting drive through to Dinan.
Cypressade by viaduct over the Rance with a view down onto the old port. & river. Parked in Cathedral square.

Romanesque doorway.
Walk from English garden, ramparts, outside old chateau. into old town & clock tower, old streets. & finally as sun came out sat down to lunch. at 350 F each of.
Vol au vent, ham rolls, tomatoe, biksteak, salad,
potatoe, cheese & ^{mayonaise} fruit. local wine - Muscadet.
Walk back. through town. & so to Lamballe, home of the National Stud. - earlhouses. Perchevon. - back. to van & so to St. Brieuc. - big town - avoided - by using road Views of the sea. Very long 20 km. to Paimpol.

past many little seaside resorts. We liked St. Quai Portvicus. Eventually to Penopol. of Lotis.
Icelandic fisherman. Nice little port having lost its cod fishing in 1914. Oysters, muscadet, & crepes on the quai. - Michy had 2. On to Treguier, where having crossed the river by suspension bridge to Cathedral Square. Fine Bretagne cathedral, 15. wooden work, & wooden figures of St. Yves between rich & poor. Went to cloister to see double faced cross & bishops palace. Shopped out at 7 pm. by verge. Unremarkable drive to Penros Cuirec.

On the beach at Tregastel.

which was delightful. - The Deauville of Brittany, & so over the hill to Ploermanach. The camping site of Ranolien lived up to the description in the book. Wild site in the middle of gorse moor with huge pink stones, hot showers, shop good toilet facilities, bathing all to hand & very private. Eating up bits evening meal & so to bed. after visit to port to see illuminated boats sailing round harbour to Breton bagpipe music. Fireworks & bouffes.

M. 29. 8. 60.

Dull morning soon cleared to brilliant sunshine. Kids to the beach - us to a walk along the cliffs & rocks past the lighthouse & boat + lighthouse, to the village of St. Leger - shopped & back to pick up children, in the van to Tregatel Plage ^{Cove 2000 beach}. Swim before lunch. - hot sun. cold wind. Picnic lunch on beach. - Pate de Pays. - grapes. Stayed on beach all the afternoon. - occasional squally showers.

Bought some Boules. Jilly burst the ball. Unsuccessful badminton. Saw a sailing dinghy capsize. Wrote to a play on the wireless. ^{Deaths head} Pile of Pancakes. Walk & climb over the rocks. Saw crepes being made. Back to dinner. Tom de France by Jill. Steak. Peas Potatoes. Melon. Red wine - bed.

My pump is heating.

T. 30. 8. 60.

Again dull early cleared up soon to brilliant windy morning. Van to St. Cuzco, then walk over duffs to St. Cuzco port from the plage. Saw Statue to St Cuzco with pinholes in nose from local habit of young girls to ensure marriage, handed here in cloth. Van to sheltered bay between Ploissance & Thegastel. Had a swim. Picnic lunch of soup & pate in the van. Sunbathed, read, diary knitted & game of boules. Back to camp gave children supper & put to bed in the van.

then dressed up & went to Penros Cuisine for special meal. Decided on Splish hotel high up on cliffs overlooking the sea. Homard à l'Américaine. - hot lobster dish in delicious sauce & with rice, with Muscadet wine. cost. £2 each. - took 2 hours & was worth it - could it really finish it. hot way in Penros Cuisine & so back to bed. Jill left sick.

W. 30.8.60.

Sunshine. left the camp Fandien reluctantly. Pleasant drive along Corniche de L'Annonique. We liked Trebuenden, hamion - on a river like Quimper. Ad houses, what we saw at the coast at St. Michel to St. Etienne was deserted sheltered, a good beach. Camp - ing at St. Etienne. Morlaix had a huge viaduct, all the shops were shut. First of the Parish Churches was St. Thegonnee. Triumphant Arch, Ossuary Calvary with St. Thegonnee & the wolf. Wooden casing of holy sepulchre in crypt of ossuary - venerable Mary Magdalen (see p.c.). Magnificent pulpit in wood with a painted canopy. St. Mary high up on the wall opposite named in a tree of Jesse. Beautiful ossuary retable. Church on hillside shortly after this, on a side road. Then to Guimiliau. Huge Calvary magnificent baptistery ^(see p.c.) Stony at Catell-Colet on the Calvary. Fine S. Porch & beautiful retable. People ringing bells in ossuary. Then to Lampaul Guimiliau. Tubet in wood across the church. Simple calvary calvary on one side 12 cybils on other side, old pieta, 7 luges carved in one piece of wood.

Another fine wooden group there. On to Sizun to see best triumphal arch of the lot. Did some shopping. Luard drove over the suspension bridge at Terenez. into sunshine (almost the best today) over the Aulme then after going through Le Faou - old houses, quiet town on river. Then to Crozon's Municipal Camp at Mougat. Poor sanitation, dirty earth, small & overcrowded. Veal chops. Mushrooms. Peas. Fruit & red wine by Jill.

TW.9.60. Very hot day. packed up. Mournful on beach. got sunburnt. Alison got bitten by sand flies. English water skiing. lots of English at Luard Hotel. Shopping in Mougat with its port, grottoes & natural stone arch. Off to cap de la Cheune, heather, gorse, bees. Whitewashed Breton farms in a treeless landscape. 2 unknown German soldier graves - remains of German fortifications and magnificent views over the bay of Douarnenez - point de Dinan & point de Pen-Hir. Boats sardine & tunny fishing. Cruise of Boules - picnic lunch. Resume drive back through Mougat & Crozon to Anse de Dinan. a beautiful deserted beach with rocks & caves to Camaret. Lobster port & boatbuilding preparing for its Pardon on the 8th. Sept. with a big fair. looked at Camping Municipal. Swings & roundabouts for the children - a newly built playground football stadium, housing estate & tree planted campsite miniature golf. Visit to Menhirs - Lines of Labatjan. passed a ruined German battery defending Brest & a memorial to the Free French. & so to the Pointe de Pen-Hir with the Tas de Pois. More fine seascapes with views right to Brest.

• the Pont Albert-houppé. Back to Carnant walk along the quay to see ship building & the chapel of Notre Dame de Roch-Amador, with ships hanging up inside. & so to find campsite. Saw some tents at Kerloch overlooking Anse de Dinan - looked like old abandoned summer campsite. - found a friendly farmer who gave us permission. & so pitched tent overlooking the deserted bay. Dinner. Spaghetti & hashed meat, garlic, onion. & tomatoe with red wine. delicious - walked over the beach to find shells, crabs and a PORTUGUESE MEN OF WAR see illustration. - Old Genman shells in a case. & so to bed.

F. 2.9.60. Drizzle + showers most of the morning drove into Camaret. shop gazed - Sea houses mounted in plastic, shell necklaces, expensive Breton pottery, wood work, fishing tackle. Visit to Live Shellfish Sheds to see lobster, crayfish + crab pens. Saw Sardine + Tunny + lobster boats. Cases of wine being taken on board. Weather depressing 1.50 to lunch in Hotel - full of French families, on the Quay. Melon. Huge plate of langoustines - delicious. sausage boiled pork + potatoes. Fruit + cheeses - Gruyere, Tom Savoie. Port Salut. / Muscadet

CAMARET. 3. 8. 60.

Very tired after lunch - sat + sketched picture overhead. Jill + kids to swings + roundabouts. Weather cleared. lovely afternoon. I walked along the quay again. - back to campsite - walk across the bay. soup + cold pâté supper. + so to bed.

3.9.60. S.

Raining quite heavily. Farmer came to sell us butter home made. f. 360! per lb. beautifully made in a round decorated lump. Said good bye to him. Walk across bay to try to find Portuguese Men o' War. but all gone. Back for a swim as the sun had now come out + shining strongly. after. noon set out having packed up. Crozon where did shopping beach at Trez Belec - deserted - hot. Magnificent drive to Menez-Hou 1000 foot high hill overlooking practically all this part of Brittany. River Aulne. Brest. Douarnenez. etc. Down the hill to Chapel of St. Mary Menez Hou. Small Parish Close. Drive on to Chateaulin - unremarkable. and Locron. Unspoilt village square with well, church, creperie and houses. Once a wealthy town making sailcloth. Sculptor in wood at work in village square. Magnificent reproduction of old statues. Church had notable Stained glass window. Tomb of St. Ronan in kersanton. (Breton granite). (15th good pulpit. Had ham, cheese, honey + jam crepes in an Oxford group recommended tea shop. - missed a lot. + so off to Douarnenez and Treboul. First Camp awful. Second camp municipal + marvellous. - almost as good as Raulien in a pinewood with rocks. Dinner on spaghetti + minced beef. Walk into Treboul.

$ 4.9.60.

Dull & raining. Off early to Benodet via Quimper to see Pardon, Fair. - Sun came out.
Old women in coifs. Took part in 2 raffles and won a cheap plate. Kids on the roundabout.
Crossed the Ferry, Pont l'Abbe. Saw church and Begoulin monument. On to Locudy passing Chateau of Kenazan. Picnic lunch on the Quay side. Then to beach, & talked to Englishman. Round Circuit de Cornouaille via, le Guilvinec a lovely unspoilt seaside port. Men playing Boules. Penmarc'h. - Plage d'Esquival. High wind - waves ++.
On to St. Emele & saw wind on rocks, fishermen & boat putting out in high sea Pleasant church at St. Nanna. Church with ships on it. Then to Audierne. & via. Pont Croix & Combert back to Douarnenez. A nice sunny day & fascinating cottage & amborgines.

BOAT BUILDING AT CAMARET.

3. 8. 60.

M. 5. 9. 60.

Hot sunny morning. Did the walk round Douarnenez Market. - Saw nice & women wearing special hats & packing sardines. Walk round the coastline several places & so to the Old & New Ports - the fourth largest fishing port in France. Mostly sardines but some tunny & lobster. Watched fish unloading, bought lunch & then to Plage de Rio where bathed & picnic lunch on Sands. Jill was me back to harbour where I painted until 5 pm. when Jill who had been on the beach all afternoon came to collect me. & so to Dinner. - see below. Jill defeated & Mickey almost defeated. Only thing against the place was the number of English present, lovely first floor restaurant overlooking the harbour. and as the meal progressed the moon rose over the harbour. - see over.

Dinner at Hotel de la Rad. 17 f. each.
Moules Marinières.
Sardines, Grillée Reserve St Louis
Steak & chips.
Crapes & Ices. 12 f.

Portuguese Man o' War. on beach, near Camaret. 2.8.60.

A TRAXMO.

BRETON FISHING HOUSE.

T. 6. 9. 60.

Five morning, John had headache, late start. Jill washed. Down to the Port by noon. I did a painting until 1.30. Jill shopped: kids to Plage des Dames. Started to rain at 1.30 pm. into van - panned. Picnic lunch on roadside before Locronan. At Locronan, visited Little Chapel, of M-D Bonne Nouvelle Well & Calvary. Balanced in weaving shed. I so a net drive - panning chats et chiens, to Quimper. Parked on river bank. Rogounee on the way was noteworthy. At Quimper, walk through small courtyard to Cathedral. Choir + nave out of alignment. Some fine glass (15th) & one remarkable modern window Pulpit. Statue of King Guadalon in between spires. Square full of tourist shops with expensive pottery, dolls in national costume, lace & woodcarving. Old streets, - house of Canguat: ds. Creperies. Back into car. Still raining. On to Concarneau. Miserable. Found rooms in Hotel de Concarneau. - 2 double beds. 1230. Fr. - Out to play near Concarneau for evening meal Cray fish soup. Omnible Sausages. (Hidy said lovely) - Crapes. Cake etc. Kids back to bed us to look for a drink at 10.15 pm. - all shut up. "France ain't what it used to be."

DOUARNENEZ
FROM PLAGE DE RIS
6.9.60.

W. 7. 9. 60.

Dawned full of sunshine, paid the hotel & went shopping. Found a fish shop, bought langoustines, sardines, etc. went to Beg Meil picnic lunch, on Plage du mine. After walking round ^{old town.} After lunch Jill went off to inspect Beg Meil while I painted. Flags going up all ^{the} over the place, on all the ships. One of the lace sellers on the quay said it was in honour of President De Gaulle who was to visit the town next morning. Cross of ^{homaine} in red button dahlias stuck in the earth at the entrance to the town.

Old town completely walled, approached by only one bridge, a ferry. Busy sardine & Tunny port. Jill arrived back at 4 pm. Jill put up the tent. After a drink, in a cafe - dubonnet, tomatoe juice. - went to Caravelle Restaurant for dinner. -

Drove in twilight to Beg Meil - arriving after dark. Excellent facilities on the dunes, with a wonderful beach.

Menu. -

Soup.

Langoustines.

Pork chops & Potatoes.

Cheese & Crapes

Bananas.

Vin Rouge

Ordinaire

View from Cote de Rob
Dourmenecq

T. 8. 9. 60.

Found the only drumbak to the beach - the H.25 smell of seaweed which spoilt breakfast. Down to the shore after dunes & a game of Badminton. Net provided - our rackets - still dry water like a pond. Dutch couple on beach, from Haarlem. Wonderful shells. Hermit crabs. Game of Boules. Wrote diary, scrubbed read. Hums on rocks. Lunch. Langoustines, & Fresh fried sardines. Melon - Muscadet. Back to the beach after lunch. More badminton. More people on the beach. Went for a walk round Beg Merl. Big houses at the side retired & sea coast houses, at the wealthy expensive hotels full of English. Small harbour & view of Coveaumeau. At cafe watched English waiting for papers, & had cheese & jam Crepes, beer & Lillet. Icecreams, lollipops. Homey walk back to camp. Supper was an eat up meal of soup, pate, cheese etc.

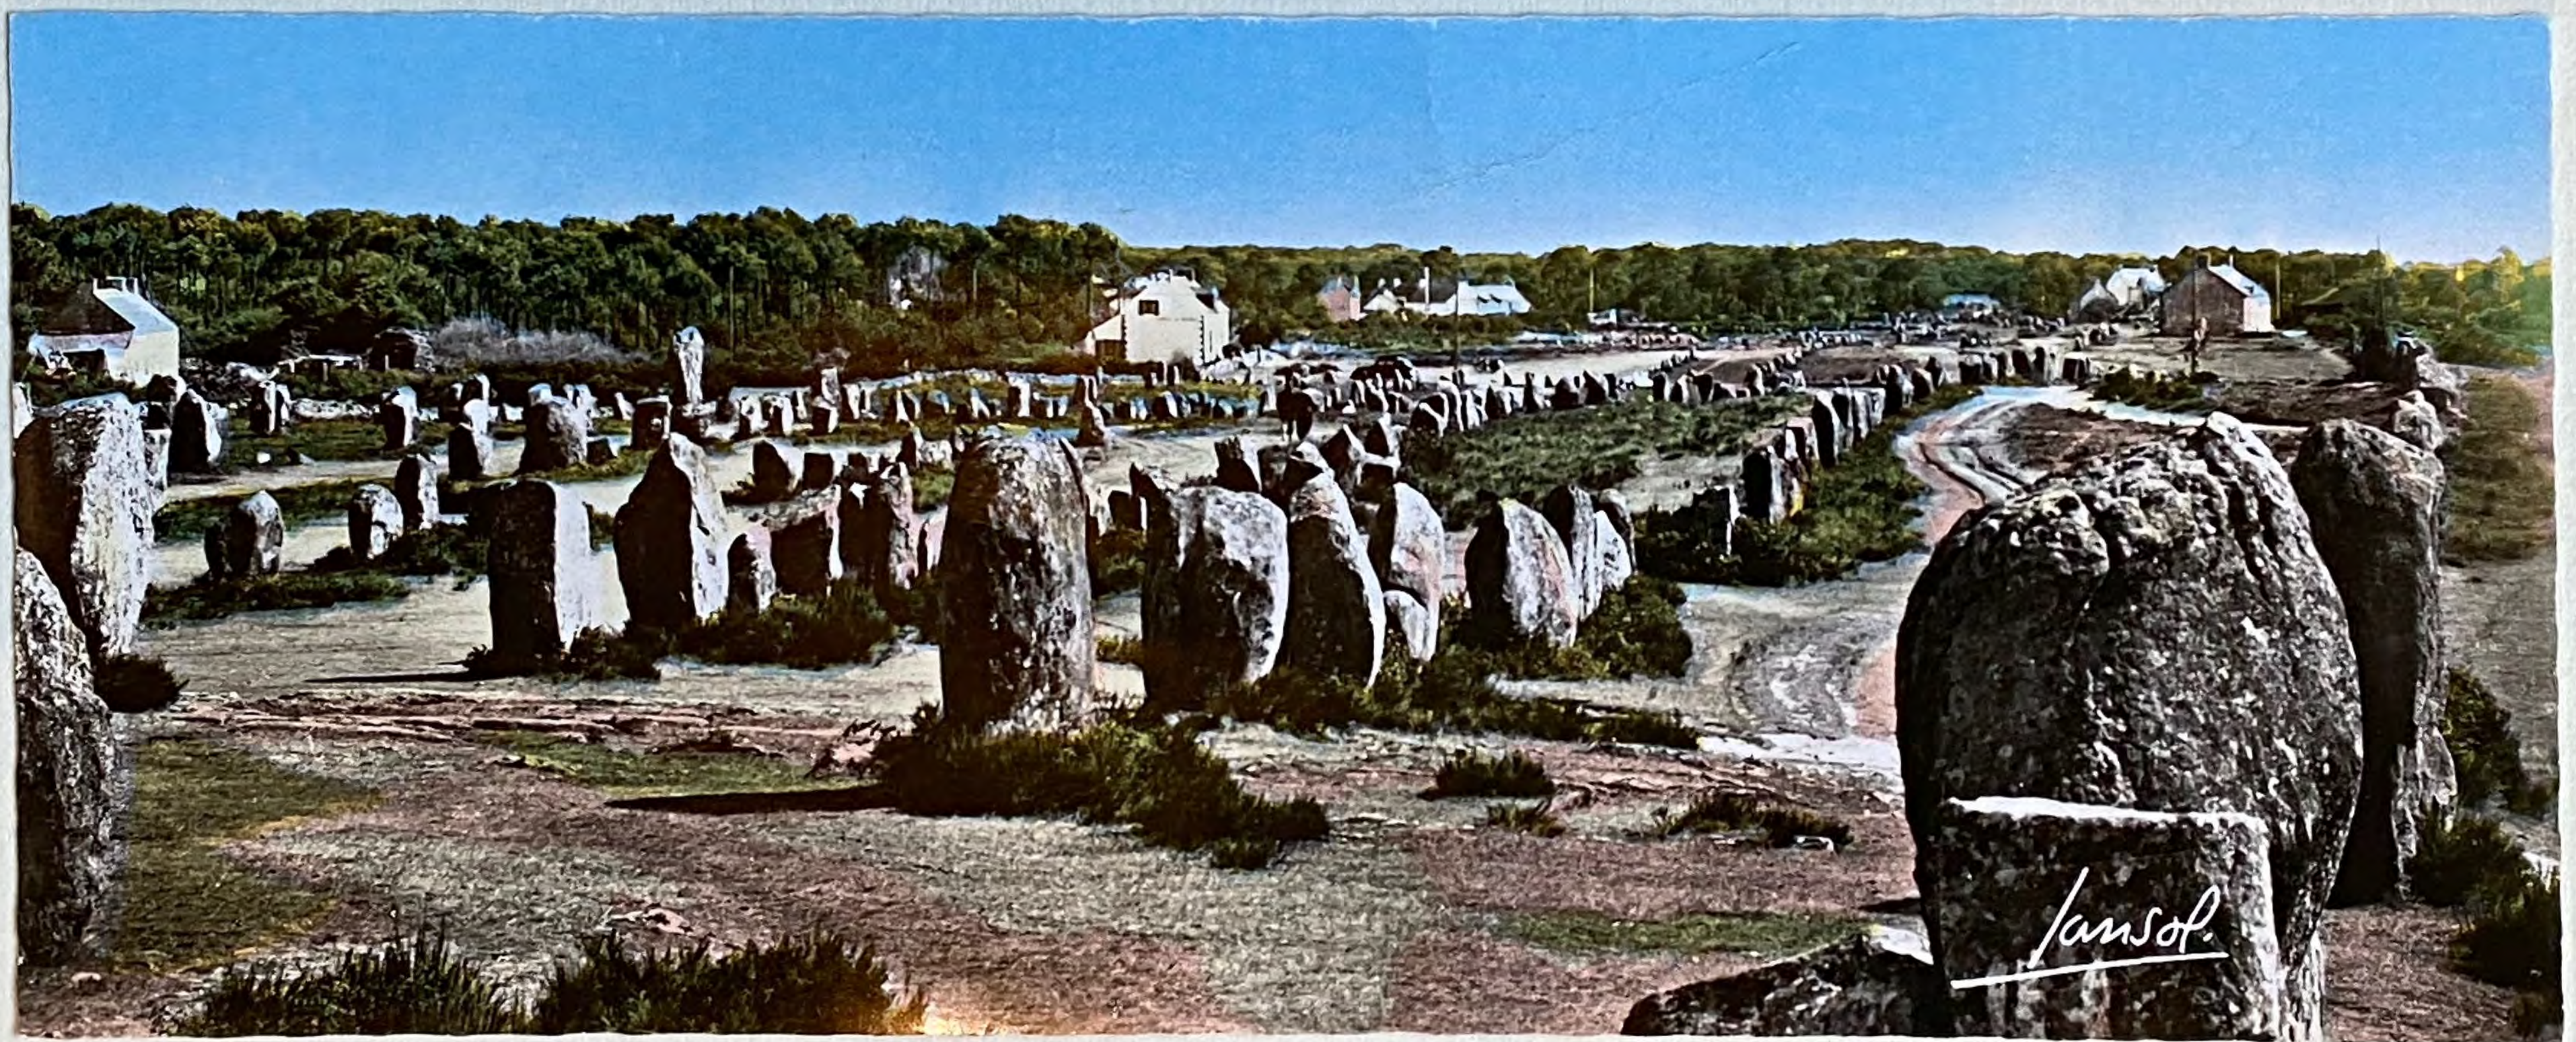

F. 9. 9. 60.

Glorious hot day again. Rained up. John had a quick dip. On to Coveaumeau having said goodbye to other 4 Dutch present. On to Port Auen - shades of Crauguin, but why? rather a dull place. Quimperle much nicer, many cottages. old church modelled on the holy sepulchre. Old houses. Port Scout unremarkable. At Heme'sart caught up with General Le Caule. Traffic stopped & stood at end

Beg Meil.
T. 8.9.60.

of street. He popped up like a Jack in a Box out of a black Citroen Entourage of about 12 black Citroens. & motorcycle outriders tore through like Grand Prix.
at Le Mans. - talked to a Spaniard. Mixed seeing the town in the effort of getting beyond General De Gaulle. & so to Arway. Unexpectedly beautiful old town - artists - tide coming up through old bridge. sizzling hot. Walked up to Old Church. Antiquary in shells. - Chateau at Chambord entirely in Shells.
Had lemonade & beers in hot sun on quay. Kittens, geraniums spilling out of windows, apple trees - begonias & old wicks. On to Canac - Saw Menhirs of lines of ~~Permian~~ Kenmanio. - film being made with the traditional hearse. Misdirected by Jill. See illustration. Finally to Canac Plage. Camping de Menhirs. Expensive. Met our old witch couple again. Trainers picked up. went to plage. Swam picked up shells etc. & then to Car & out to Peninsula of ~~Locmoutaguer~~.
Quiberon. - At one part 200 yds wide. a few megaliths. Cote Sauvage not impressive Quiberon itself not bad but very tourist & expensive meals. Drove back to St. Pierre. Quiberon for meal in Hotel de Bretagne. - ordinary. Soup. Crabs, Clams.
Madman & mentally deficient little girl jactitating around. Steak. Omelette.
Muscadets. Ices or Cheese & fruit.

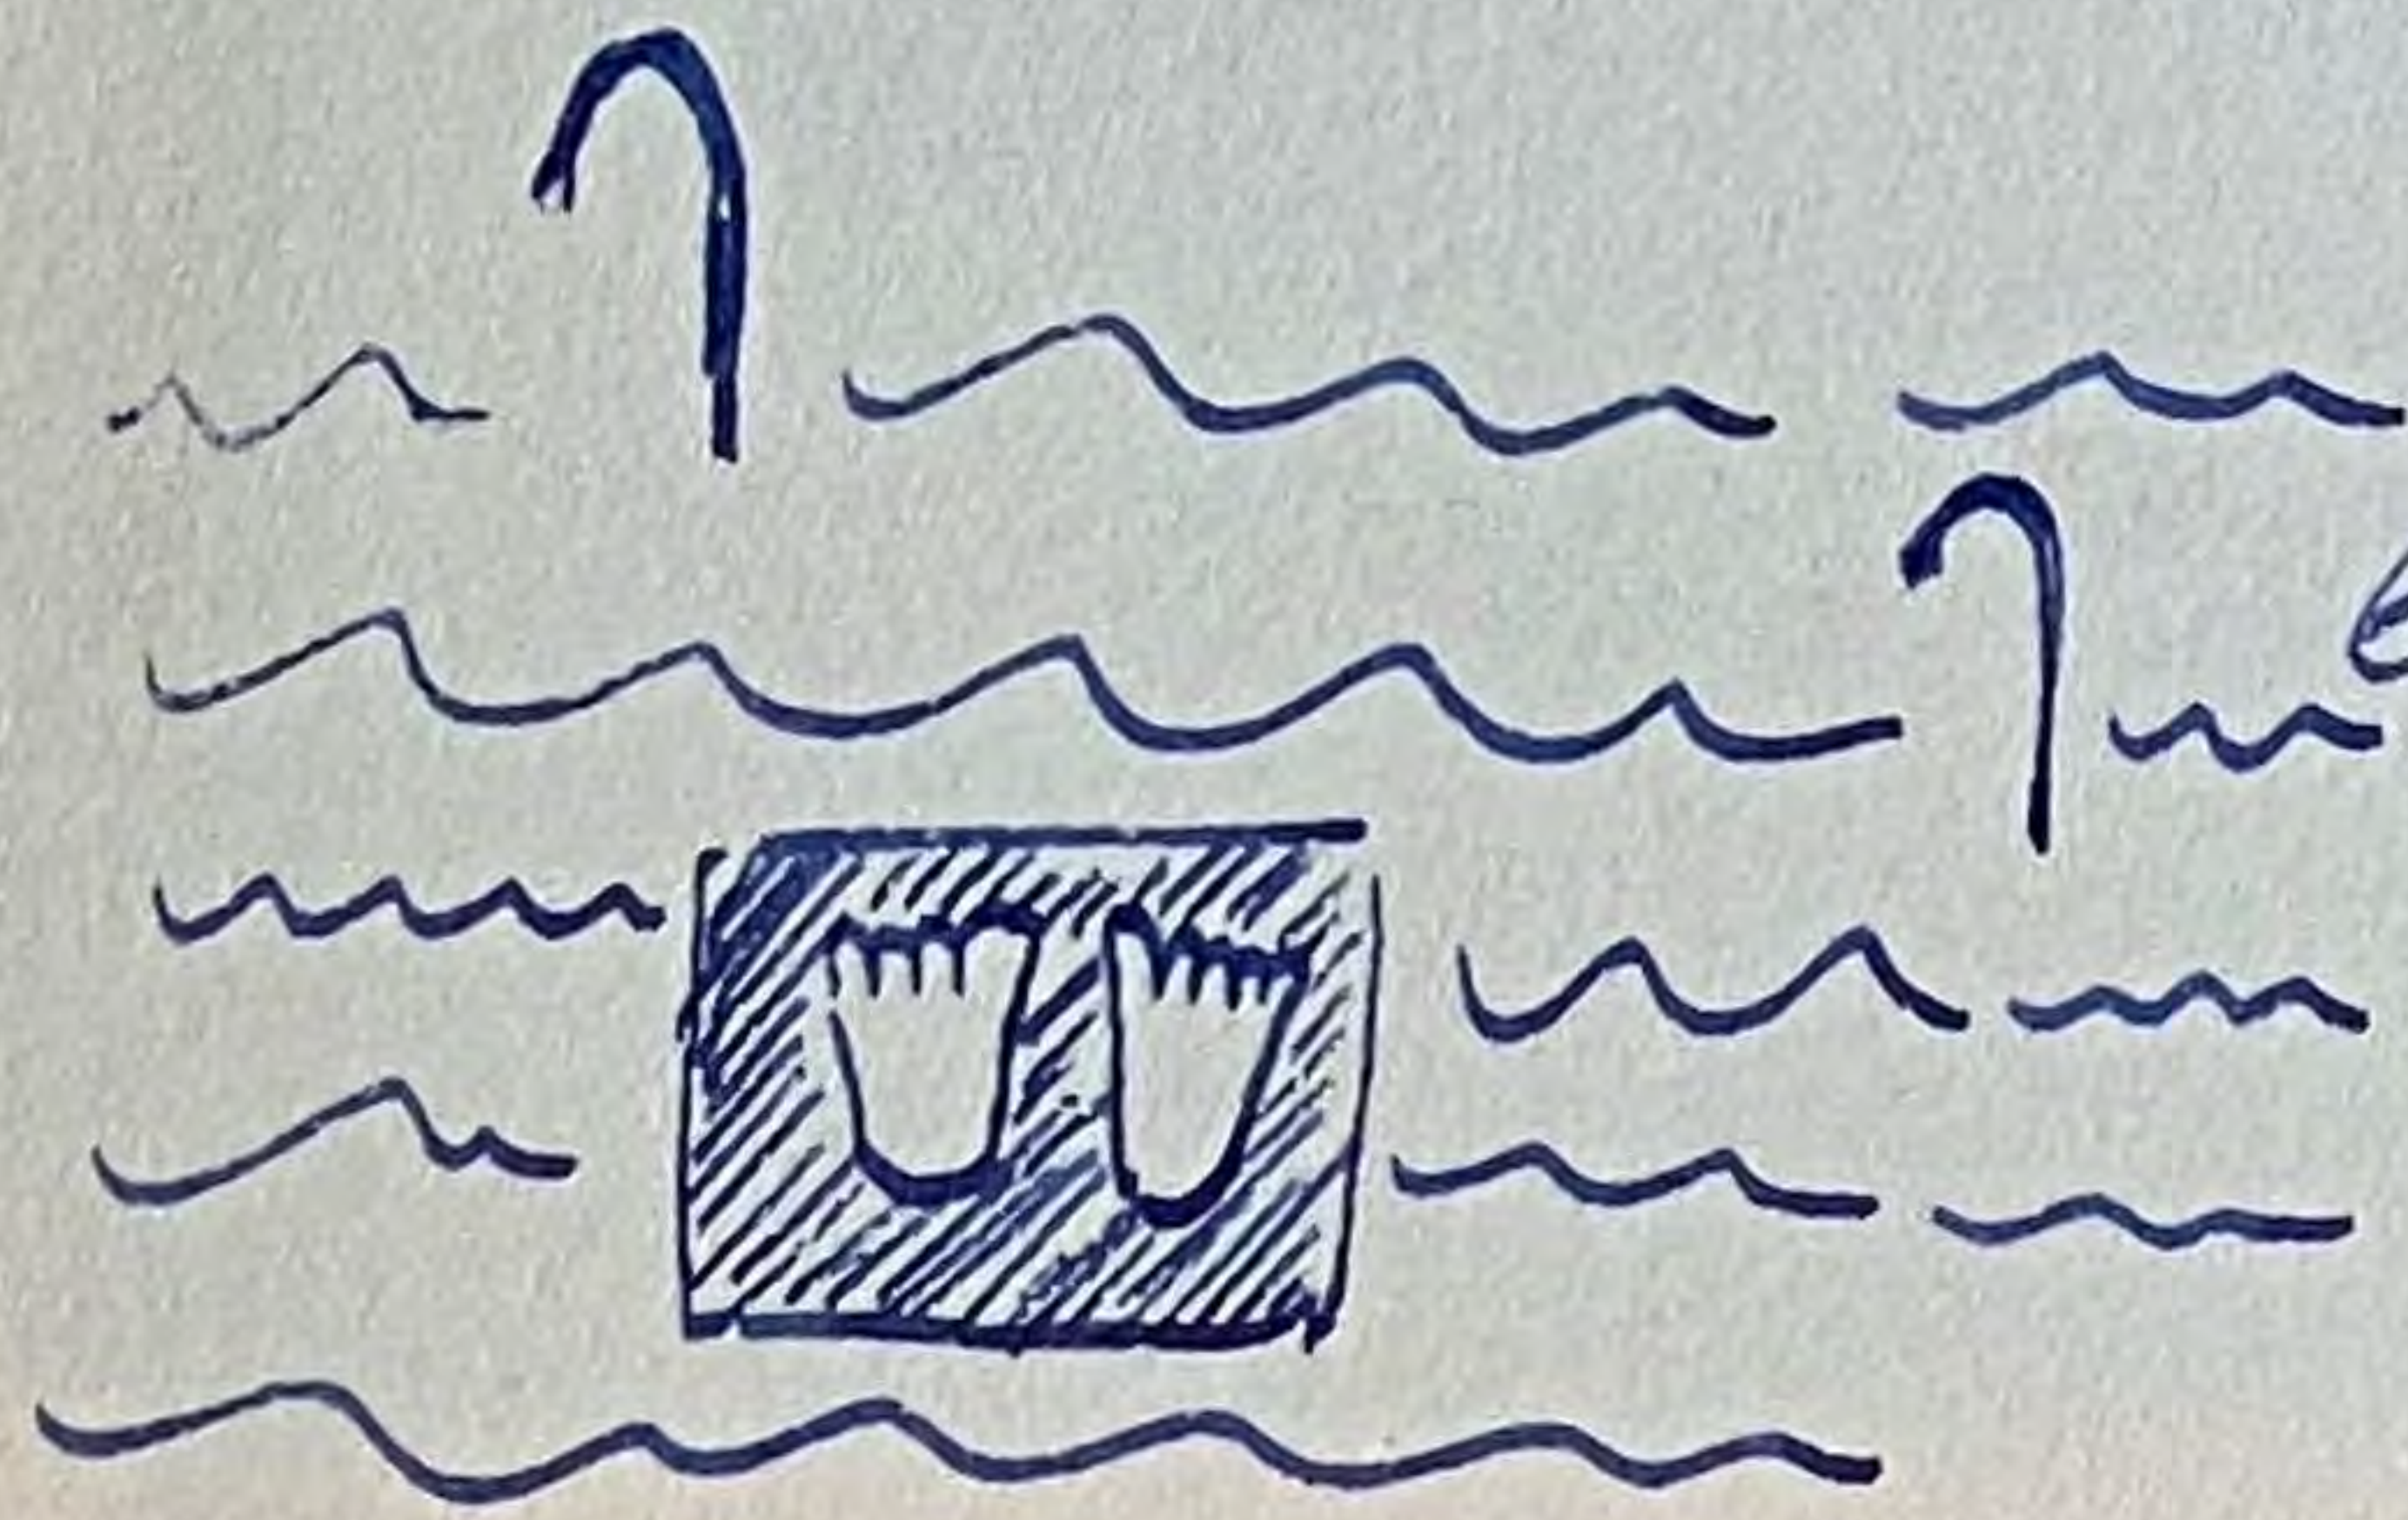

Drive back through the dark. to camera. 1 so to bed.

S. 10. 9. 60.

Packed up. Saw the Dutch Couple. Camping cost. P. 320. !

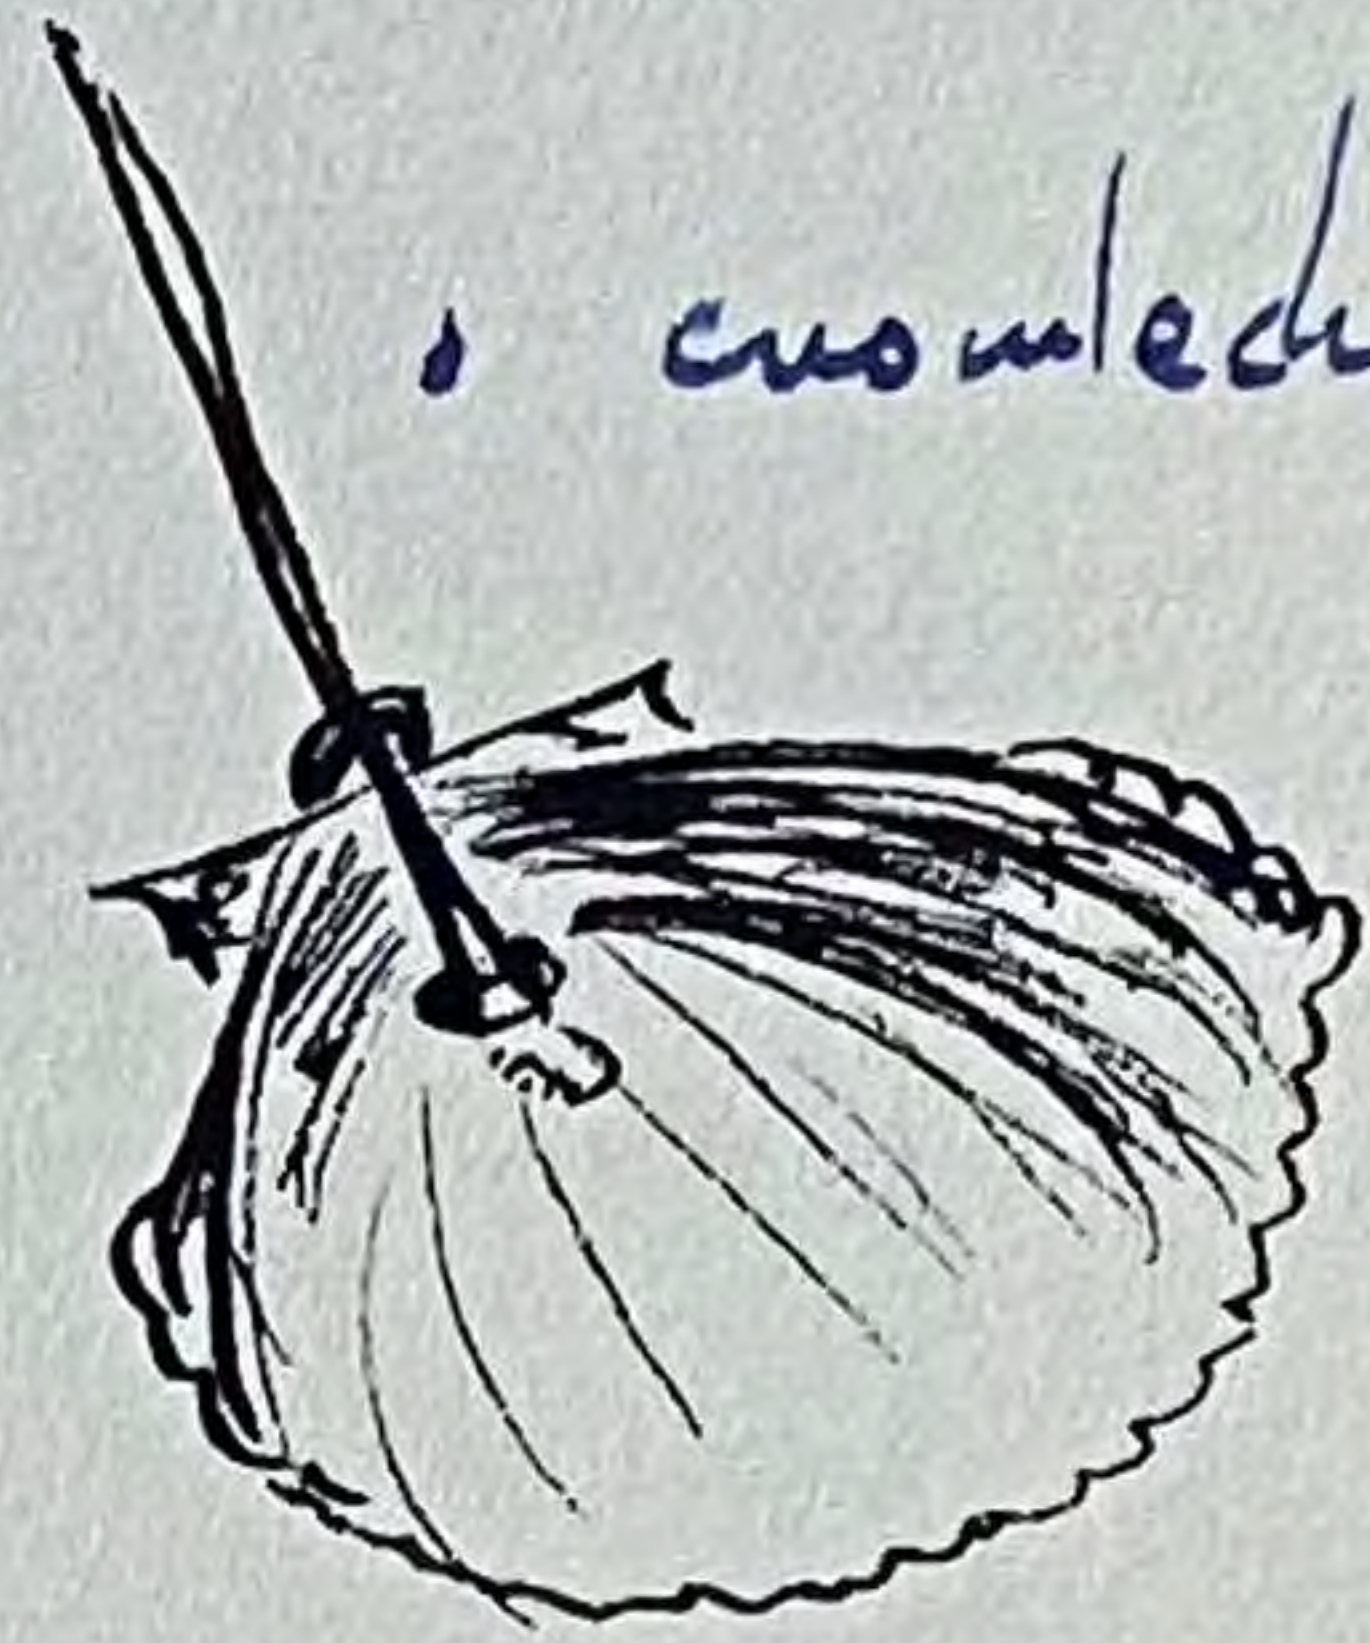

Town of the Menhirs. Mines of Menec. Children asking for English matchbox & money. - after first of all a visit to the Tumulus of St. Michel. - counting old tombs - crowded off a main passage - old guide - town by candlelight Visit to Museum of J. Milin, 2 le Rouzic. Skeletons, models of Dolmen, Crowleds. & shell beads, cockle shell spoons. Copies of markings on menhirs & crowleds. Hot. then on to bathing with snorkels?

- CHAD.

Mines of Menec. r. Kernario. la Turiste. & so over a new bridge over the estuary. - oyster beds. to Ibemaniaguer. Dolmen of Nane had - in a farmyard.

Great Menhir in 5 pieces weighing 350 tons each. Where did it come from. - who broke it up. Merchants table Dolmen. with plough & horses. - ripening ears of corn
On to  Auray. Meal for 600. Soup. Langoustines. Pork cutlets. Cheese & fruit ices, Muscadet

Reserved for Vitre.

At 3 pm. on to Vannes. Picturesque city of ramparts, chateau, cathedral & washhouses.
Roennel, noted for Dr Guénin at last duennings fame & into the forest of Parispont.
past the Duke's Pool at the Forges of Parispont to Rennes. Like Paris with a magnificent view up the river with city on either side. Rapid visit to Palace de Justice & Tabor Gardens with General de Gaulle hot hot on our tails. - hordes of policemen.
On through the setting sun to Vitre - its chateau, its old streets, antique shops.
A long drive in the twilight & mists rising off the meadows thus Evree to Mayenne deserted rolling countryside with Norman farmhouses. At Mayenne found a magnificent campsite by the river, swimming pool, canoes, etc. Dinner in the van. Oysters &

Veal cutlets. & so to bed. very damp & misty - approached by drunk $. 11.9.60.

Hot sunny Sunday. Swimming pool in full swing by 10.30 - so left reluctantly Mayenne notable in daylight. Drive thro' Normandy countryside to Bagnoles-del'Orne - a Cheltenham spa sort of place. We left rather undrained. Unpleasant shop keeper but kind bus tour owner gave us a good route thro' the Suisse Normande.
Ice creams. - Soon through the river valleys - like the Dordogne to Flers.
Pont Erambourg where we had lunch by the road & riverside & played pool sticks.
to Clecy - Thury - Harcourt & so into the rolling barren open landscape near Caen. - lots of Sunday traffic on the road to Cabourg where we camped at the Prairie. - nice but expensive. on to the beach by 4 p.m. & swimming
- not so clean as Brittany. host Niduy - found Nicky. Supper in the van. & so to bed.

M. 12.9.60 Once more a list, but not quite so bright day though quite sunny.
Off by 9.30 am. to buy breakfast in a help yourself grocer in Haedgate. Spent £4.
- only £6 left. Lovely drive through Normandy countryside to Pont L'Evêque - old houses - picturesque.
On to Pont de Tancaerville - biggest suspension bridge in Europe but cost 10' - to go over so went up

Other expenses.

25th Wine 175, Sausage 180.

26. ~~Swiss~~ P.C. 30. Ices 100. Lunch 2715.

27. Sausage, Salad 310. Wine, Liqueur 1125.
Break etc 240. Meat 560. Mince 540.
Garlic 40. Soup 180. Wine etc. 645.
Drinks 450.

28th P.C. 100. Order etc. 120

Meal 470. Oyster 60.
29. Meat 1300, P.C. 100.

30th Provisions 185. Meat 550 Ices 40
Bottle 650 Wine 210. Milk etc 400

31st Meat 205. Nelson, grapes 240.
Ices 200. Milk 60. Meal 5750

1st Milk 122. Showers 300.

P.C. 400. Provisions 242. Meat to Rouen instead. by Pont Audemar. Tedious journey. lunch at 2.30 pm. down a side road after Rouen. long quind to Abbeville counting horses & recounting the holiday.

Montueuil by 7.30 pm. Indifferent dinner of omelette or ham, steak & pommes frites. - & cheese or fruit for 650 francs. Sufficient but unexciting last meal. Drive on to Le Touquet

4th in the dark. Le Touquet looked like Paris by the sea but good cheap campsite in the dunes. A lot of wind & difficulty in pitching the tent. then found ourselves stuck in the sand - got

5th Bread 260. Water pot 150. Meat 3410
3 Cambridge undergraduates (1 from Bristol) to dig us out. T. 13.9.60 Slept like tops. Dull blustery morning. Found we ought to have caught the boat yesterday!! 12.9.60. Pink Breakfast milk oow. - panic drive to Boulogne - arrive at 10.30 found A.A & things soon sorted out.

Start - Milage.

35199 at Cirencester.

35380 Balghe.

35541 Honfleur.

35572 Melville-Franceville

35666 Nr St Michel.

35800 Ploumanach.

35825 Ploumanach.

35925 Morqat.

35970 Carnac

36006 Trebowl.

36226 Beg Meil

36334 Carnac.

36488 Mayenne.

~~36511~~ ~~Baguette~~

36590 Cabourg.

Camping

Honfleur. 270 f.

Melville-Franceville 370 f.

Nr. St. Michel 220 f.

Ploumanach + showers (3 nights) 200 f.

Morqat. 120 f.

Carnac 240 f.

Beg Meil (2 nights) 570

Carnac 320

Mayenne 205.

Cabourg 470.

Petrol	Ashford.	35347.	8 gall.	38. 3 ^d	Tyres 30.
Coupons used at:	Melville. Franceville	35572	4 1/2 gall.	20 Fr.	Tyres 30 (2 1/2 Kg).
	Hr. St. Michel	35666	4 1/2 gall.	20 Fr.
	Ploumanac'h	35805	6 1/2 gall.	30 Fr.
	Morgat	35933	6 gall.	30 Fr.	Tyres 30.
	Brenodet	36033	6 gall.	29 Fr.
	Concarneau.	36190	4 1/2 gall.	20 Fr.	Tyres. (Put in 1 pt. oil.)
	Carnac.	36270	4 gall S.	20.
	Ploermel.	36393.	4 g. Super.	20.	Tyres 30.
	Bagudes.	36511	4 g.	20.

Noteworthy meals.

Tomatoes sliced with garlic juice & parsley in French Dressing.
 Potatoes " " " " " "
 French beans " " " " " "
 Liver & garlic pate.
 Terrine with coffee filling & toasted nuts on top & round sides.
 Ham rolls enclosing home-made mayonaisse with beetroot & Tomato Salad.
 Lobster L'Américain.
 Grilled Fresh Sandwiches. Moules Maniere
 Hardy cake.
 Maidstone - Redhill. Guildford. Newbury. Chippenham & home by 11.15 pm. Fin de Vacances

Bought picnic lunch & had another breakfast. On board the Maid of Kent by noon. - sailed 1 pm. Doves & sunshine after v. smooth evening by 2.30 pm. On the road in Sunshine by 3.30 pm. Long tedious drive

Drugs.

ephedrin.
 utisone Cream.
 deime.
 Aspirin.
 x-guts.
 - Bis. et. Morph.
 sulizer antistim.
 oxalin.
 ubulin. uneg.
 ubital.
 r shampoo.
 toplast.

Poste Restante

T 25 8.60. Honfleur
 F 26 8.60. Cancale
 S 27. 8.60.
 $ 28. 8.60.
 M 29. 8.60
 T 30. 8.60
 W. 31. 8.60
 T 1. 9.60.
 F. 2. 9.60
 S 3. 9.60 Morgat.
 $ 4. 9.60
 M 5. 9.60 Quimper
 T 6. 9.60
 W. 7. 9.60
 T 8. 9.60
 F 9. 9.60
 S 10. 9.60
 $ 11. 9.60
 M 12. 9.60
 T 13. 9.60
 W 14. 9.60.

Bag for Car. + Paintbox.

Bandages
 Razor blades.
 Calor gas
 Button on bags
 Pot.
 Wivelen.
 Drug stone
 Gym shoes.

What we have miss

A boat.
 Cheese grater.
 Cider bat.

11 + 1

CARNAC-PLAGE, Avenue St-Michel

Camp des MENHIRS à 13 kilomètres d'AURAY

250 mètres de la Plage

Superficie : 4 hectares

Accès facile

Très abrité des Vents dominants

Belle Vue sur la Campagne

Calme absolu

Tél. 2-97

Même Direction :

A. FRAVALO

S. N. C. F. :

Gare PLOUHARNEL à 4 kms

Arrêts de Cars

et Alimentation à 100 m.

Terrain de Jeux

Camp du BEAUMER (3 ha)

Tél. 2-22

Téléphone. - TOUT CONFORT

GARDE en PERMANENCE

Parking - Camping des Pins

Ste-ANNE d'AURAY - 2 ha.

CONCERT DE MUSIQUE BRETONNE LE DIMANCHE MIDI

« La Caravelle »

RESTAURANT

IMP. TANGUY-LE BUREL - CONCARNEAU

CHAMBRES

EAU COURANTE

PRIX MODÉRÉS

12, RUE DU LIN

(DERRIÈRE LA CRIÉE)

CONCARNEAU

(FINISTÈRE)

Téléphone 6.11

Indian Red.

Vermilion.

Cadmium Red.

Yellow Ochre.

Cadmium Yellow.

New Gamboge

Olive Green.

Hookers Green.

Sap Green.

Emerald Green

? Burnt Umber.

Burnt Sienna

Cobalt Blue.

Antwerp Blue.

Neutral.

Prussian Blue.

Light Red.

Cadmium Yellow.

Viridian

Raw Sienna.

Olive Green.

Burnt Umber

Black.

Swiss ants
Biscuits
Plate, or something
Black Crapes
Coffee Milk, turned

Cigarettes 1 pkt
Pentonic - 15

CAMP
des MENHIRS

CARNAC

PLAGE